

What are you working on?

What subjects are you happy for others to ask you about?

What are you most interested in learning from other PSN delegates?

Tell us something about yourself

Andrew Cunningham

Learning and Organisation Development Manager

Andrew.Cunningham@visitscotland.com,
VisitScotland

Youth Employment Strategy, Talent Management, Organisation Development, Learning and Development

Youth employment interviews, talent management, leadership development.

Sharing best practice in recruitment and retention strategy.

I'm also a Church Minister.

Lorraine Scott

Specialist Lead
(Youth Employment, temporary for 1 year)

Lorraine.Scott@nes.scot.nhs.uk
+44 (0)300 013 2942

Pulling together information on what all the 22 boards are currently doing in terms of youth employment to inform NHS Scotland Youth Employment Strategy moving forward.

Youth employment and Developing the Young Workforce

Their approach to the same agenda, sharing ideas and best practice.

I have taken up salsa dancing and it's lot's of fun.

Alison MacDonald

HR Manager for Scottish Natural Heritage

alison.macdonald@nature.scot
Scottish Natural Heritage,

Workforce Planning (projects include: Performance Management, Talent Management, Skills Development, Youth Employment, L&D, Strategic Resourcing, Leadership Programme), Business Information, Paybill Modelling and Battleby Centre Services.

All of the above and HR Policy.

Their approach to WfP and all it encompasses, L&D approach and Youth Employment.

Something serious: I am also an HR Director for a charity based in Sutherland (Timespan) and have been for the past 15 years. Something funny: I can put my foot into my mouth – literally...